Dear Mr. Brings:

Thank you very much for your letters concerning your forthcoming book on prayer.

In my position as Director of Central Intelligence it has been my policy to contribute statements to official U. S. Government publications only. Therefore,
I regret that I cannot furnish you with a statement for your book.

I have noted that many leading people have contributed statements and I wish you every success in this worthy crusade.

Sincerely,

Allen W. Dulles
Director

Dear Dr. Dulles:

I am compiling a book to be published in 1958 titled THE POWER OF PRAYER, containing statements by prominent laymen in various fields of endeavor, as well as prominent clergymen and theologians, of all religious faiths.

We wish to include a statement from 300 to 600 words along the line of THIS I BELIEVE, proving the value and efficacy of prayer in various walks of life.

To date, I have received statements from J. C. Penney, Goodwin J. Knight, Senator Brooks Hays, Roger W. Babson, Bruce Barton, Earl Eisenhower, Jr., Daniel A. Poling, Admiral Arleigh Burke, Ezra Taft Benson, Judge Luther W. Youngdahl, Dr. Charles B. Foelsch, Bishop Stanley Coors, Conrad Hilton, Faith Baldwin, Judge Ben Moore, Senator Edw. Thye, and many others of similar reputation.

I would like a statement from you to include in the book. We have nothing to offer except your satisfaction in having contributed something to this crusade. I hope that you can do this for us.

Very truly yours,

T. S. DENISON & COMPANY

Dear Dr. Dulles:

On January 3, 1958, I wrote to you about writing a statement for my forthcoming book about prayer which we have titled WE BELIEVE IN PRAYER, and which we expect to publish in September, 1958.

Perhaps you will be interested in glancing over the enclosed list of contributors who have already sent in their statements to me.

I hope that you can find the time to furnish a statement also.

Very truly yours,

LMB/r

American leaders in all fields of human endeavor contribute statements about the value and efficacy of prayer in the new book,
WE BELIEVE IN PRAYER, to be published in September, 1958.

Here is a list of contributions already received. A similar number are preparing their statements. It is planned to include 500 statements in the book. I hope that you will decide to be included.
